Rockwood Area High School

Rockwood, Pennsylvania

Passing Through . . .

In Honor . . .

The Rocket staff of 1980 would like to honor Mr. Frank Illar for his many years of instruction at Rockwood. As we've passed through our years at RAHS, few people have influenced as many of us as Mr. Illar has since he began teaching in 1940. During his years of conducting the band, he has shared his musical abilities with both the students and the community.

We hope he continues to share unselfishly his talents with the community for many years to come.

Even as the hall pass signifies the means to go to a different area of the school, it also signifies the means of experiencing various aspects of our lives.

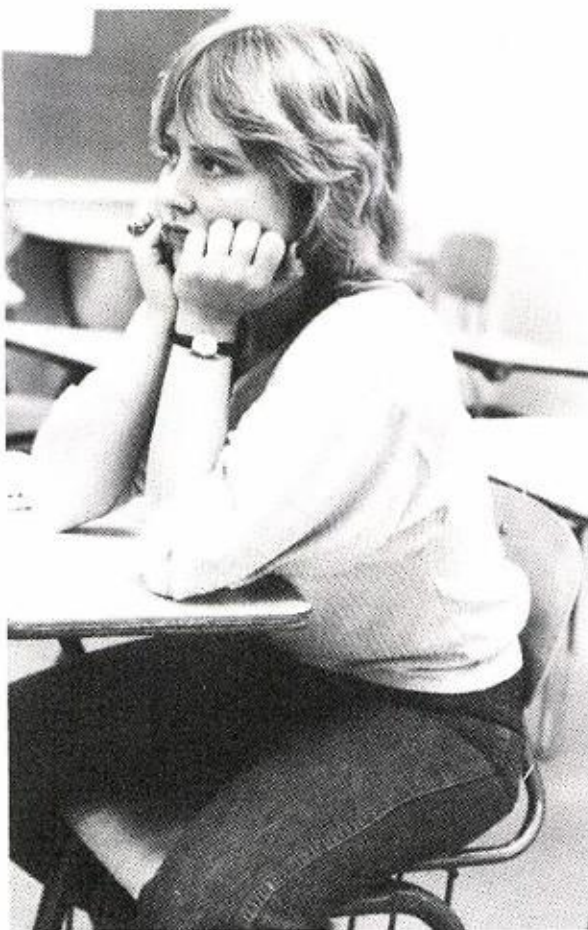

As we pass through events in our lives,
Each one of us perceives.
Perceiving is learning.
Learning is doing.
Doing is accomplishing.

We strive for accomplishment.
Passing the tough final,
Sewing an outfit,
Painting a canvas,
Finishing a cutting board.

Passing Academic

Through Life

In our classes, we discover the fundamentals of learning.

Adding numbers to build into theories,

Reading words to develop a story,

Digging into history to understand our heritage,

Memorizing vocabulary to communicate with others, and

Solving chemistry problems to better our minds.

We constantly gain more knowledge on which to build.

Passing Through Social Life

Learning occurs not only in school but also in our social lives.

We learn to get along with others
At sports events,
At jobs,
In our homes.

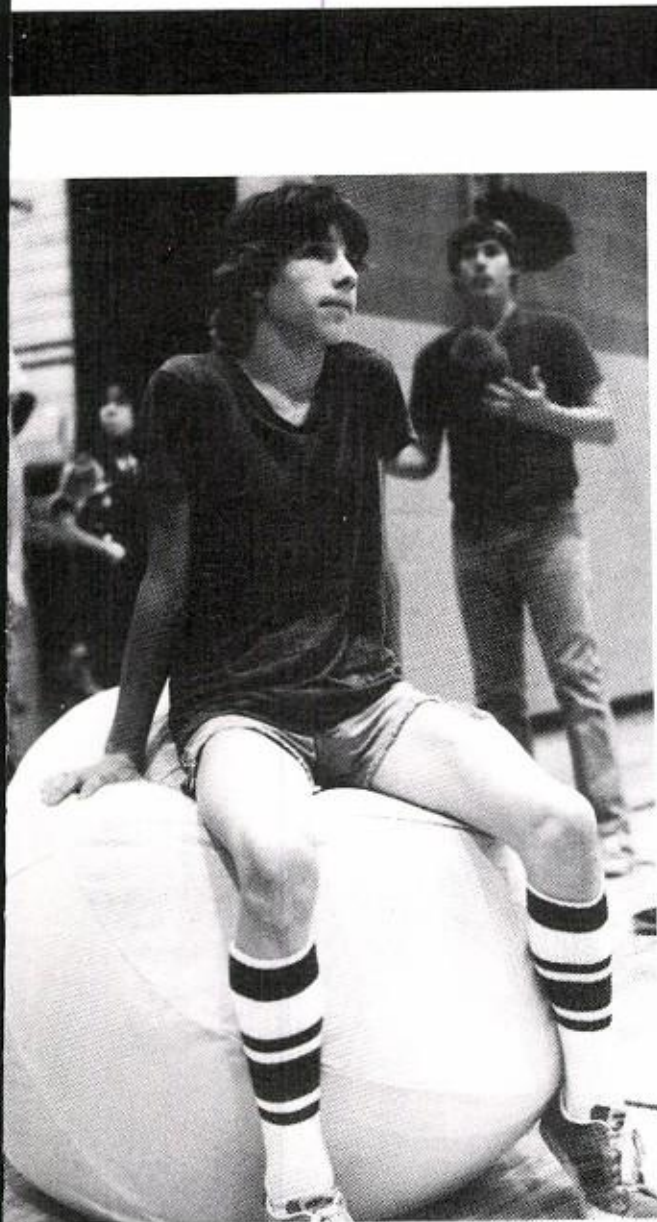

We discover talents,
Meet new people,
Enjoy new experiences
together.

Passing Through

Extracurricular Life

In school we not only learn the basics —
Reading, writing, and arithmetic —
But we also have the opportunity
To play a sport,
To shoot a rifle,
To cook a meal,
To raise a calf.
Our minds are widened
through these activities.

By passing through the many areas of our lives,
Our Academic Life,
Our Extracurricular Life,
Our Social Life,
We are able to perceive,
To learn,
To share,
To accomplish.

One enters seventh grade as just another name. As the years pass, friends are made, good times are shared, and memorable experiences are enjoyed. An underclassman passes through the years working in and out of the classroom in an attempt to become an individual, to make his name significant.

Seventh Graders Step Into

Coming into a new school is a challenge for all of the seventh graders. Adjusting to the new way of learning, meeting different teachers, finding the right room, and dodging each other in the hall are just small parts of the adventures of the first year in high school. The upperclassmen would like to welcome the class of 1985.

Class of '82 Gets Involved

The class of '82 was involved in many different activities throughout the year. With the opportunity now open to participate in senior high sports, many sophomores took advantage. During March they ordered class rings. This was also the year in which the tenth graders sponsored the annual Soph-Senior.

Now that the activities of their sophomore year are completed, members of the class of '82 are anxiously awaiting their experience as juniors.

Passing through a typical Rockwood year, students attend or participate in many events, times that will be remembered. At concerts, music lingers in the air; contests give rise to competition; and dances add a touch of romance.

Class of '82 Presents Soph-Senior

The annual Soph-Senior, sponsored by the sophomore class, was held on November 16, 1979, in the high school cafeteria. Couples attended and danced to the music provided by "Legend," which consisted of Rockwood graduates Troy Cramer, Dave Clement, Rick Pyle, and Rick Tipton; and Pete Stumpf from Somerset. The theme for the evening was "We've Got Tonight."

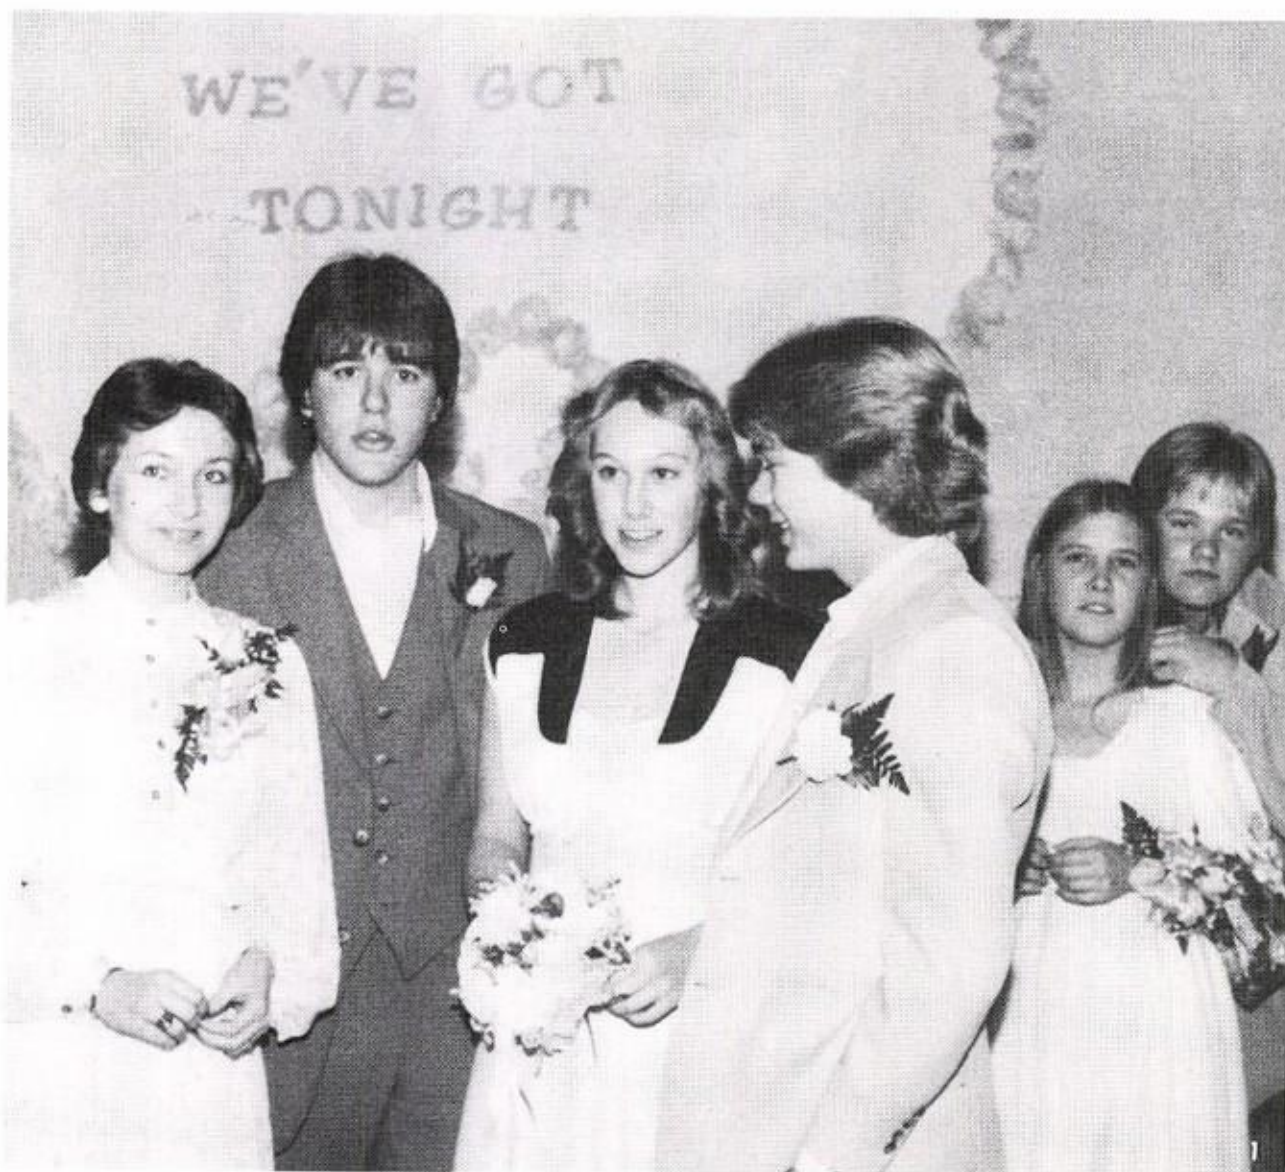

1. Donna Marker, Nick Wohlfarth, Chip Romesberg and his date, along with Carla Littleton and Scott Bowman find an evening of enjoyment at the Soph-Senior.

2. Lori Weyand and Shanda Queer look up just in time to see Jim Pfeifer sneer at the camera.

3. Couples enjoy slow dancing to the music provided by "Legend."

4. Everyone seems to be in the mood to dance the night away.

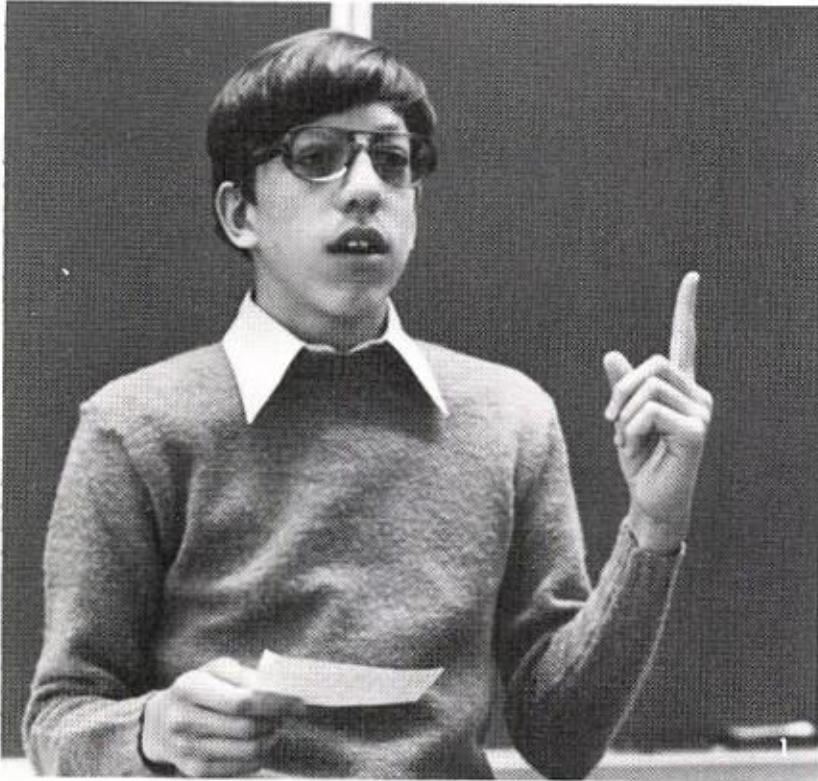

5. All enjoy a chance to rest their feet while the band takes a break.

Speech Team Gains Confidence

Speech Team is relatively new to the Rockwood Area School. Five years ago, the concept of speaking competitively against other schools was introduced to the students. Within the last year, some members of Speech League began competing in the NFL (National Forensic League), a prestigious organization in which students have a chance to accumulate points to achieve different awards and merits. The Speech Team participated in seven tournaments.

1. Speech Team members Jennifer Stahl and John Gielarowski smile about their important victories while their coach, Mr. Hook, reminisces about the meet.

2. "To be, or not to be?" That is the question Rex Temple seems to be asking.

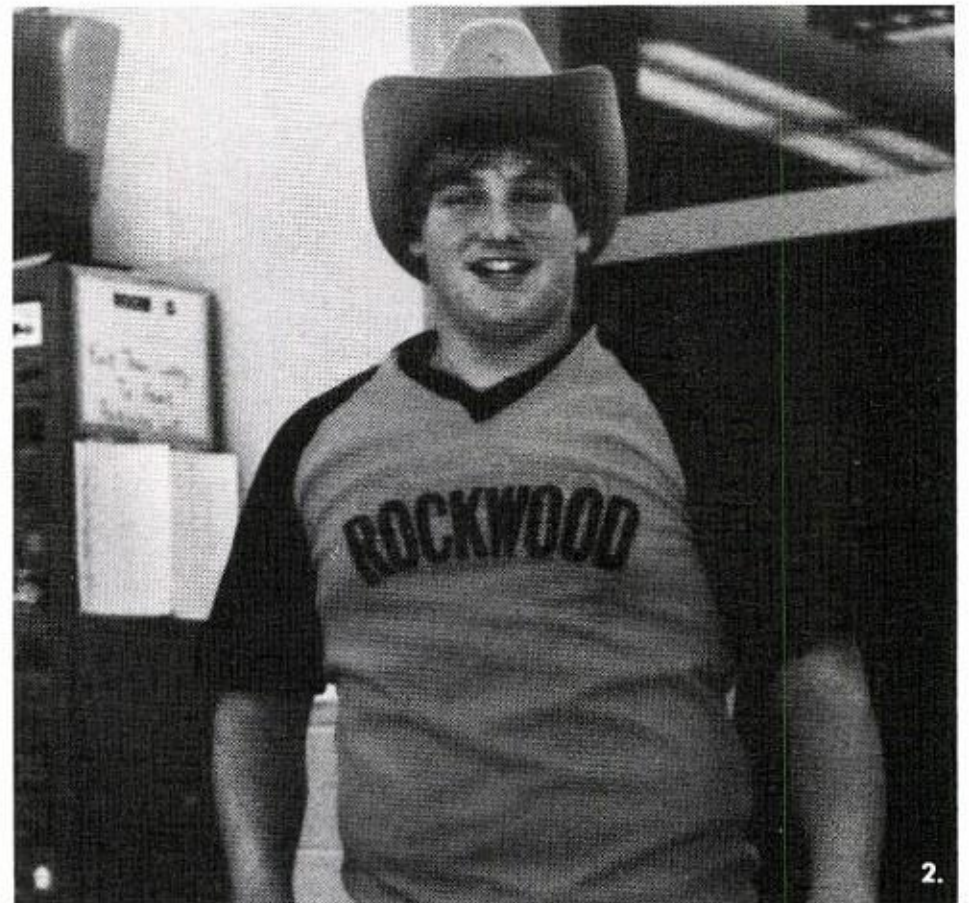

3. Jodi Pletcher applauds the technique of one of her teammates during practice.

Student Council Rallies School Spirit

This year Student Council blasted off boys' basketball season with a spirit week. Monday was inside-out day. Tuesday, fifties day, included a pep rally where students learned new cheers. Mr. Lamp introduced the varsity team after discussing the coming season. Mr. Baltzer's introduction of the junior varsity team was followed by several skits. Wednesday was red and white day, ending the week before Thanksgiving vacation.

A second spirit week was held before basketball playoffs. On Monday each class decided how it would show its spirit for class competition. On Tuesday, the seventh and eighth grade students wore hats to express their support of the team. The ninth and tenth graders wore patches and red and white on Wednesday. Thursday was the day for juniors to dress as cowboys and Indians and for seniors to wear black and gold, the champion Steeler colors. Friday, everyone dressed in his "spirit clothes" and participated in the pep rally. Judged on originality, amount of class participation, and, of course, class spirit, the class of '81 won the competition.

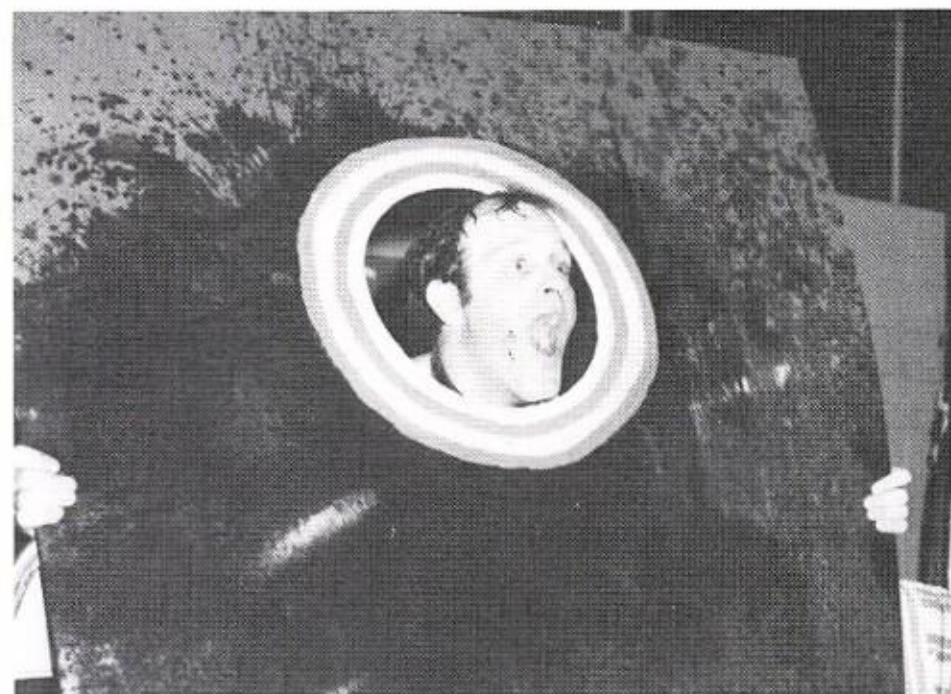

1. Lynn Gontis, modeling her black and gold, the champion Steeler colors, shows her faith in our school team.

2. Blake Pletcher seems to be wondering where his faithful horse is.

3. Rockwood faculty members show their spirit.

Fall Frolic, AFS Weekend

On October 19, 1979, the AFS held a Fall Frolic in the cafeteria and gym. Not only did the AFS raise money by holding this event, but also it gave other organizations a chance to raise money by setting up their own booths.

1. Mrs. Smith and Sally Sanner discuss the success of the evening.
2. Vickie King waits in line for her turn to throw darts at the teacher's picture of her choice.
3. He wouldn't dare!
4. Maybe he would!!
5. He did!!!

Provide Fellowship, Fun

Several families of the Rockwood community served as hosts to ten AFS students for the AFS Weekend held March 26-29, 1980. The visiting students took a field trip to the Maple Festival and attended classes and a dance held in their honor. Students from Rockwood had the opportunity to talk to the foreign exchange students and learn about their schools and countries.

1. Chris Scelles, Rockwood's AFS student, enjoys the Maple Festival with visiting AFS representatives.

2. Patty Brougher and Karl Nagle enjoy a pancake dinner with the exchange students.

3. AFS students from Paraguay, Switzerland, Latrobe, Hempfield, Australia, South Africa, and Colorado visit Rockwood.

Seven Vie for Maple Princess Title

Seven contestants participated in this year's Maple Princess Contest, held on Dec. 6, 1979. Crowned as Rockwood's 1980 Maple Princess was Amy Walters. First runner-up was Shelley Neil; second runner-up was Lynn Gontis. The other contestants were Melissa Yoder, Linda Sleasman, Susan Charney, and Peggy Meyers.

1. The girls happily congratulate Amy.

2. Amy Walters, 1980 Maple Princess.

3. Shelley Neil, first runner-up, answers her questions.

4. Lynn Gontis gives a pretty smile after being named second runner-up.

5. Peggy Meyers dances for her talent.

6. Melissa Yoder performs her number.

7. Sue Charney shows her skill on the saxophone.

8. Contestants were Peggy Meyers, Linda Sleasman, Sue Charney, Melissa Yoder, Shelley Neil, Lynn Gontis, and Amy Walters.

9. Linda Sleasman uses humor in her talent number.

This year's musical, "Bye, Bye, Birdie," directed by Mrs. Logsdon and her son, Scott, was presented on Oct. 25, 26, and 27, 1979.

1. Mae Peterson (Jennifer Stahl) shows her unhappiness at the thought of losing her son.

2. Rose Alvarez (Jaynn Tobias) and Albert Peterson (Terry Schmidt) give happy smiles after all their problems are solved.

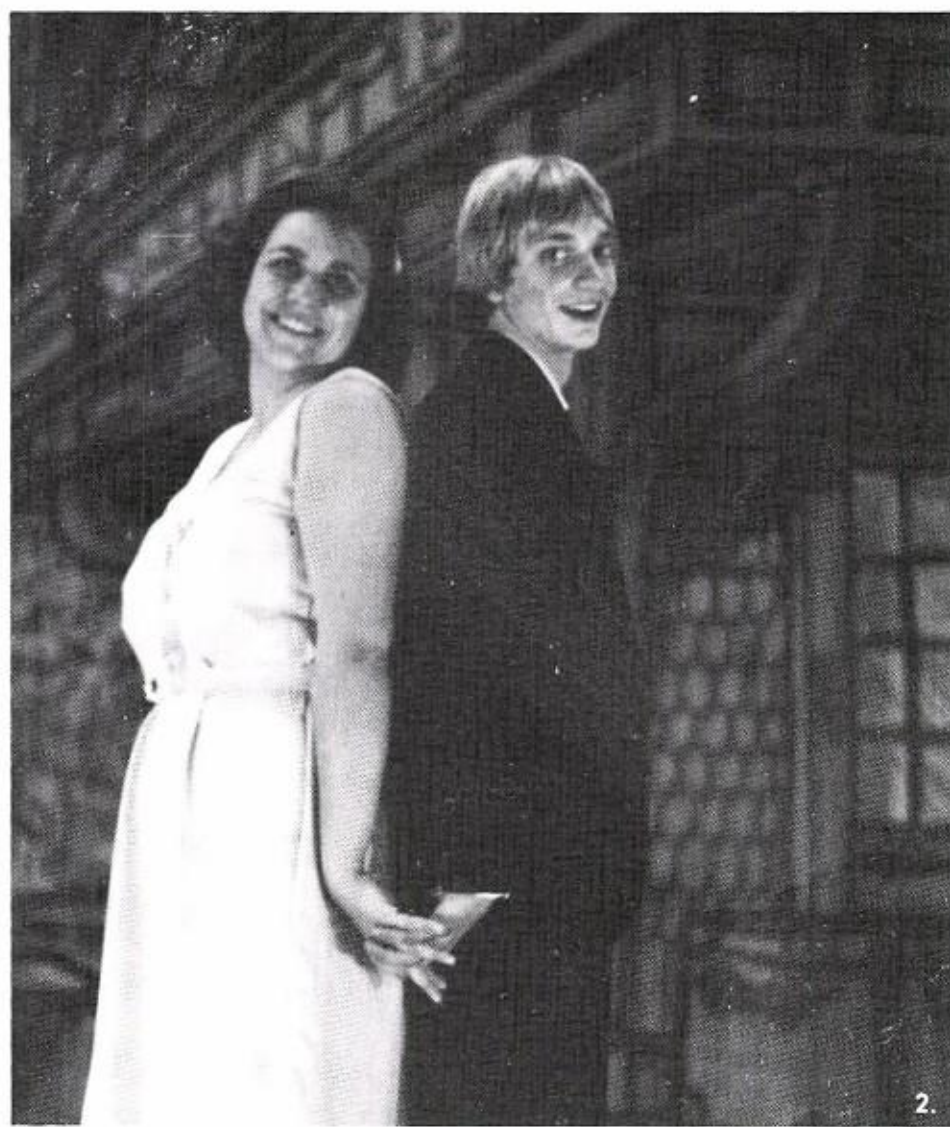

3. Teenagers Ann Kincaid, Susan Tedrow, Judy Leone, Kay Marker, and Tracy King go crazy over Conrad Birdie!

4. Conrad Birdie (John Gielarowski) says good-bye to his fans before going to the army.

5. Play Cast — Row 1: Amy Puffenberger, Ann Kincaid, Joe Illar, Kurt Tipton, Scott Sanner, Kim Krebs; Row 2: Susan Tedrow, Scott Romesburg, Amy Schrock, Patricia Holyfield, Judy Leone, Rhonda Henry, Sherri Kreger, Vince Svonavec, Mark Sipe, Kirk Dull; Row 3: Ken Dupre, Jill Tobias, Joan Shumaker, Tim Patrick, Jonn Gielarowski, Terry Schmidt, Jennifer Stahl, Jill Love, Michele Dupre; Row 4: Kevin Waltermire, Tina Kidd, Lisa Gontis, Tracy King, Kay Marker, Anita Weimer, Chris Scelles, Diane Waltermire.

6. Crew — Row 1: Patty Johnson, Amy Walters, Doug O'Donnell, Sue Schrock, Diane Gary, Jodi Pletcher; Row 2: Donna Marker, Dave Weyand, Francis Hochard, Scott Romesburg, Amy Schrock, Shanda Queer, Kurt Tipton, Kevin Yoder, Joe Illar, Scott Sanner, Mark Sipe; Row 3: Susan Tedrow, Wendy Stahl, John Jagnow, Matt Hixson, Jack Romesberg, Ruth King, Kirk Dull; Row 4: Susan Miller, Holly Pletcher, Penny Ritenour, Jeff Hay, Jim Pfeifer, Lori Weyand, Peggy Leasock, Dorla Knopsnyder.

Christmas Music Fills the Air

The Christmas concert was held on December 13. Junior and Senior Bands, along with the choruses, performed their musical selections, helping to enhance the Christmas spirit.

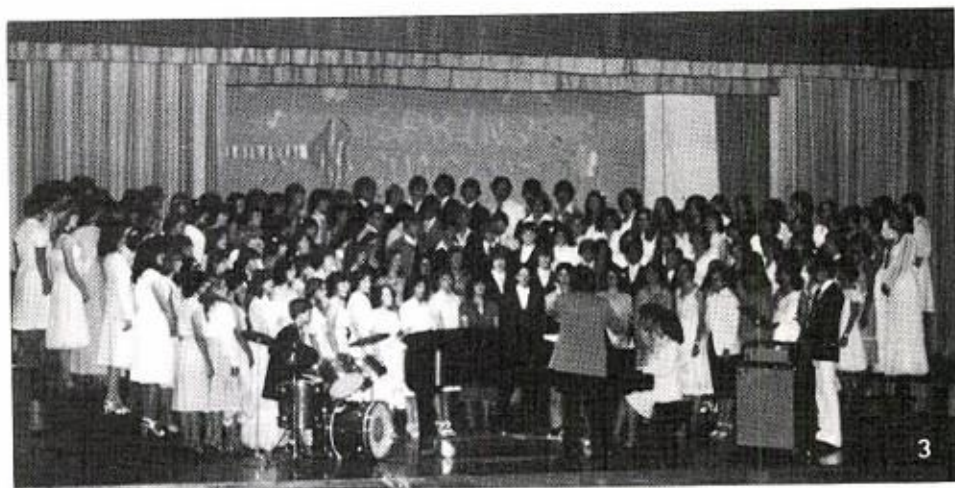

1. Mr. Kingera directs his first Christmas concert at Rockwood.
2. The chorus says, "Merry Christmas," with a song.
3. The spirit of Christmas comes to life with music.

Spring Begins With Music

The music department, breaking tradition, divided the Spring Concert into two concerts, two different nights. The Junior Band and Chorus performed on May 8. On May 15 the Senior Band, Chorus, and Stage Band performed, dedicating "Yesterday" and "Song of the Sea" to the graduating seniors.

1. Junior Chorus members perform before a receptive audience.

2. Stage Band, a new addition to the music program, performs songs such as "Just the Way You Are" by Billy Joel.

3. Senior Chorus entertains the audience with a song dedicated to the seniors, "Song of the Sea."

4. Junior Band, although small in size, plays to full potential.

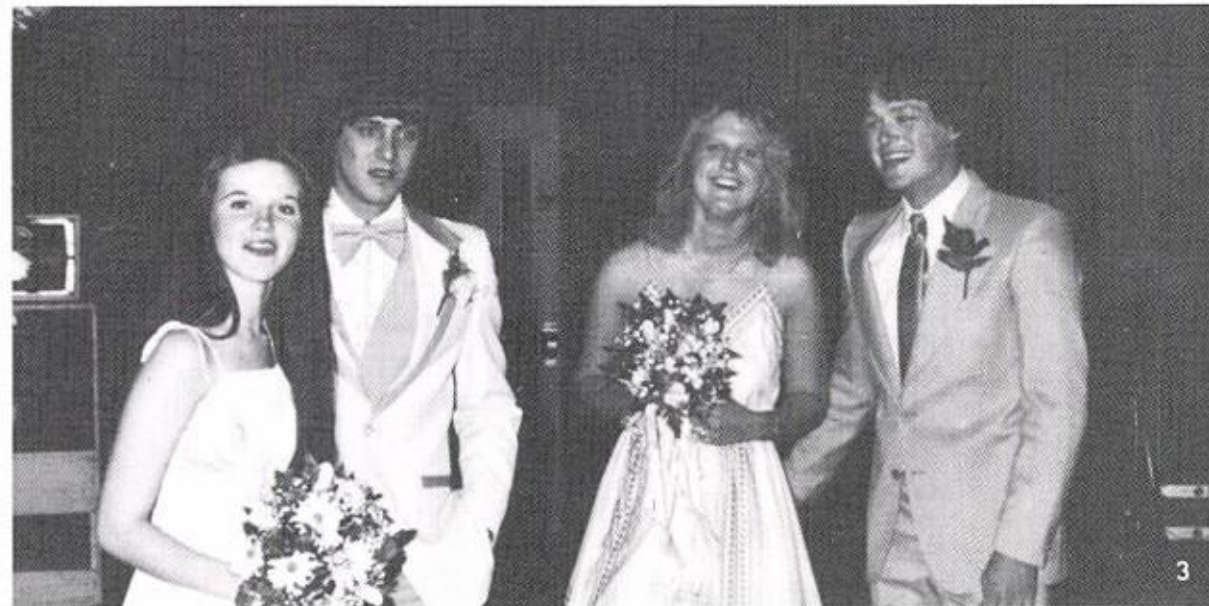

5. Senior Band performs its first Spring concert under the direction of Mr. Richard Kingera.

1980 Prom Held at Seven Springs

The Prom, held May 9 at Seven Springs, had as its theme "The First Time." Fifty-four couples began the evening with a sit-down dinner at 6:30 in the Club Room. The entertainment was provided by "Aura." The Prom King and Queen were Roger King and Jill Love.

1. Lori Lambert, Tammy Gross, Peggy Leasock, Jennifer Stahl, and Lynn Gontis seem to be enjoying the evening.
2. Melissa Yoder, Michele Shaffer, and their dates never seem to tire of dancing.
3. Linda Sleasman, Maggie Hixon, and their escorts begin the evening with smiles.
4. The Prom is a happy event for all, including Carol Hall, Joni King, Lori Putman, and their dates.

1. Junior class president Tammy Gross presents Prom King and Prom Queen awards to Roger King and Jill Love, as their escorts, Teresa Fox and John Fox look on.

2. Sue Miller is caught in the middle of a brother and sister quarrel.

3. Amy Walters, Jaynn Tobias, and their dates make a nice foursome.

4. Juniors Tom Pletcher, Roxann Swindell, Sally Sanner, Kurt Metz, and Fred Kaufman are thrilled over their first Prom.

5. "It can't be that bad," Tammy Gross says to Albert Knobloch.

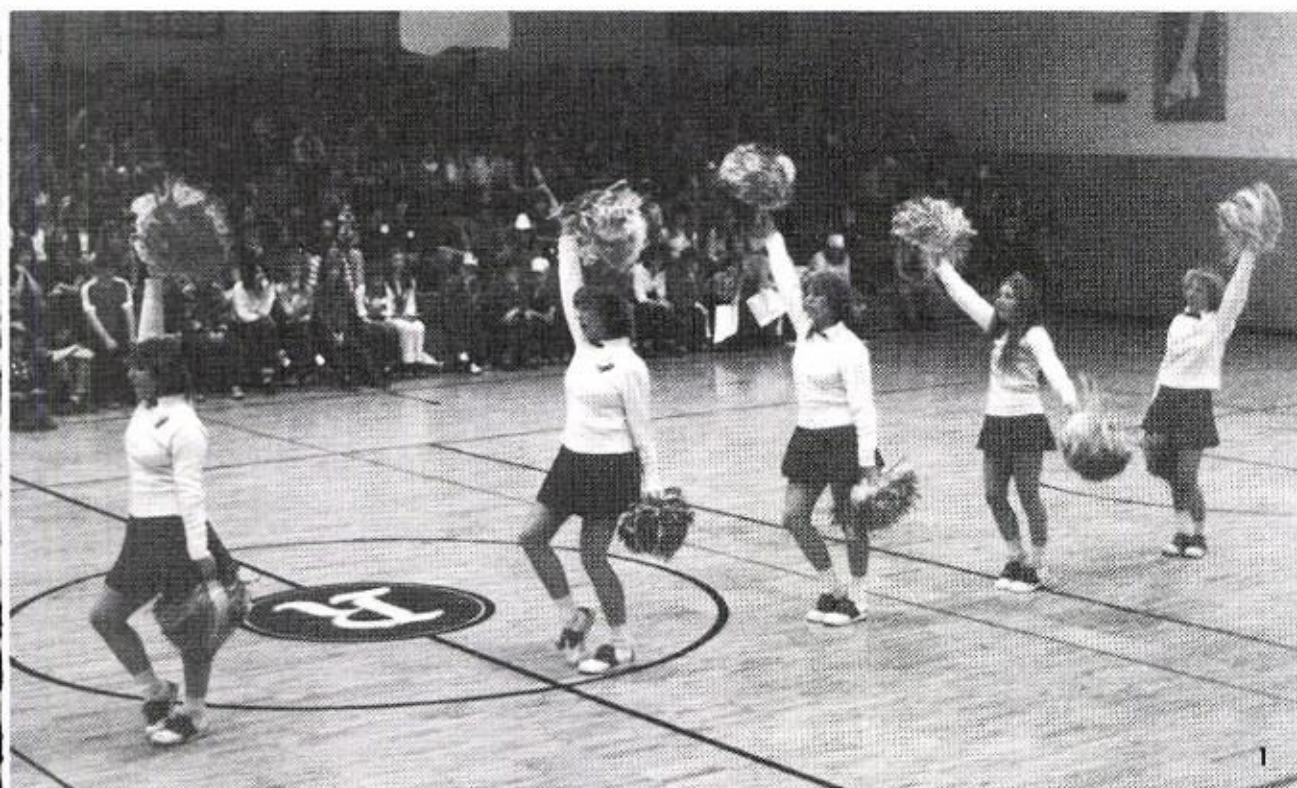

Assemblies Educate Students

Students, by attending the variety of assemblies provided by the school, have had the opportunity to enrich their minds. Assemblies, such as two singing groups, a horse show, National Honor Society inductions, a preview of the class musical, and Scholastic Quiz tryouts served, not only as education, but also as entertaining diversions.

1. "Horsing around in school?"
2. Chris Scelles, Dennis Nicklow, Mildred Shaulis, and Melissa Mull are proud to be inducted into N.H.S.
3. The group. Trapezoid, performs folk music during an assembly in school again this year.
4. "Sing it for us one more time, Conrad," shout the members of the Conrad Birdie Fan Club.

School Rallies Behind Teams

School spirit was encouraged through several pep rallies for the various sports. The j.v. and varsity cheerleaders did skits, taught, and led cheers. During one pep rally, competition was held between the grades to see who had the most spirit. The coaches introduced their players and spoke about the upcoming seasons.

1. Cheerleaders Melissa Yoder, Sue Stoner, Holly Schrock, Carla Littleton, and Violet Hall perform a pom pom routine for the Spirit Week pep rally.

2. Several Student Council members present a skit to help raise spirit.

Many students participate in the number of organizations and the variety of athletics at Rockwood. Activities exist to fulfill almost any interest students may have, and sports are available for them to stay physically fit. Vo-tech students widen their minds not only by learning in a classroom but also by using this knowledge in a real life situation by passing through actual job experiences.

These experiences enrich our high school life and make up the many fulfilling dates of 1980.

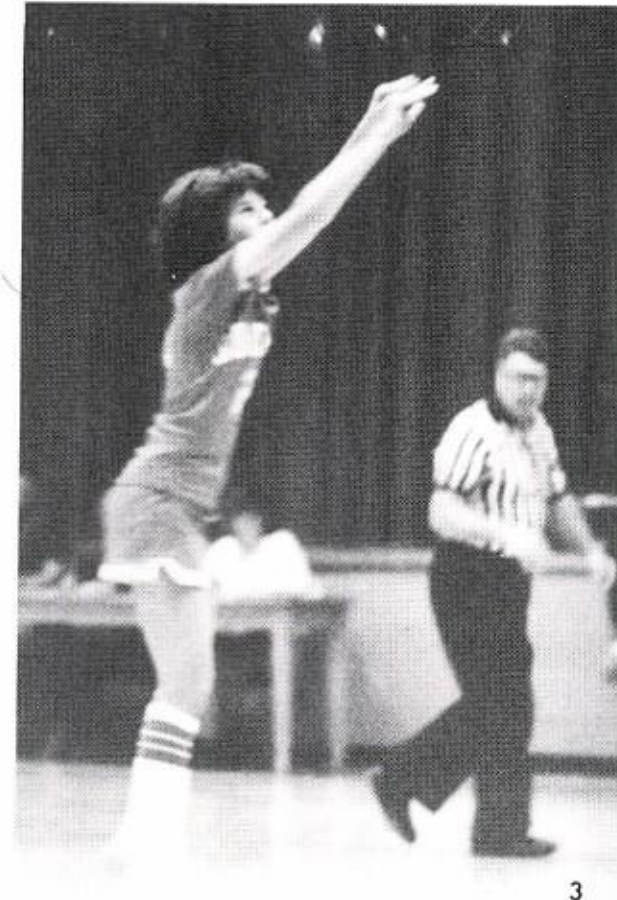

Girls' Varsity on the Move!

Rockwood Students

National Forensic League, a division of the Speech Team, was introduced at RAHS two years ago. Since its introduction, two of the members have accumulated enough points to receive the Degree of Honor, the second highest degree. To achieve these points, a member must compete in the various categories against four or more other speakers. The higher he places among the competition, the more points he can receive. One of the advantages of belonging to the NFL is that it gives the students a chance to compare themselves to other speakers on a national scale.

1. Jennifer Stahl, John Gielarowski, and Jodi Pletcher discuss results of the tournament with Dana Pritts and Tina Kusch, two former speech team members.

2. Patty Brougher shows Amy Ludwiczak what it takes to win.

Students Broaden

Besides academic, business, general, vo-ag, home economics and industrial arts courses, students at Rockwood have the opportunity to attend Somerset County Area Vocational Technical School. At Vo-tech, students learn not only in a classroom but also in real life situations. Asked what benefits they have gained from their Vo-tech courses, students had several answers. "After graduation I'll have enough experience to get a job in the mechanical field without further training," said Dennis Nicklow. "You learn job experience," stated Roger Bailey, who takes auto body.

"I learned more about the career I want to go into," explained Melissa Mull, medical assistant.

"It helped me finalize my decision to go into medicine," stated Jodi Keefer.

Cathy Albright added, "The school prepares a student to become a professional. When I am finished at Vo-tech, I can get a job in cosmetology."

1. Mark Putman decides which ratchet to use.

2. Michelle Meyers carries on a friendly conversation with her plants.

DESTINATION

EXCUSING TEACHERS

APPROVED BY

After passing through twelve years of hard work and study, students reach their final destination — graduation. The 1980 seniors face even greater destinations. What are these graduates destined to be? Secretaries? Coal miners? Teachers? Doctors? Lawyers? Factory workers? or maybe President of the United States of America?

Class Motto: Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, I may not lead. Walk beside me, and be my friend.

Class Flower: the rose

Class Advisors — Miss Hostetler, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Maize, Mrs. Johnson.

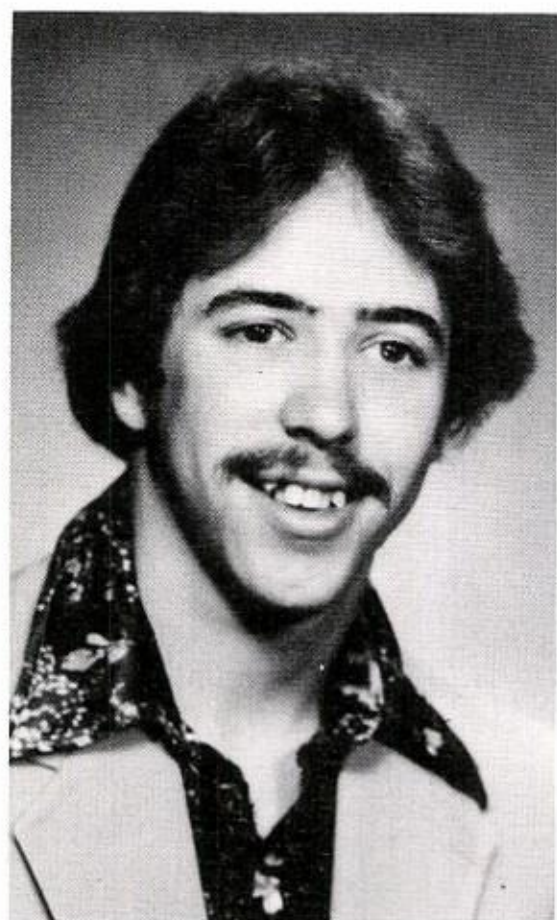

As the class of 1980 passed through junior high and high school, it was known as a class with an independent streak. However, this independence never prohibited the class from respecting others as exhibited by the class motto — "Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, I may not lead. Walk beside me, and be my friend."

Class of 1980

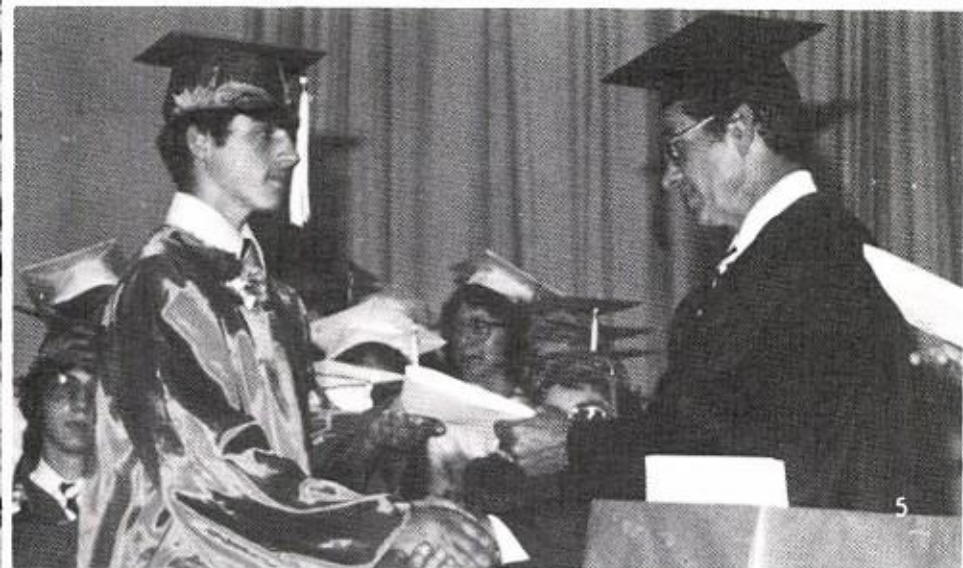

This year, Commencement was held on May 29 and Baccalaureate, May 28. Pastor Paul Tobias was the speaker at Baccalaureate, while music was provided by the Baccalaureate Choir, under the direction of Mr. Larry Lavigne. At graduation, the guest speaker was Mr. John F. Snyder, along with valedictorian Jaynn Tobias, Salutatorian Joan Shumaker, Class President Amy Walters, and Student Council President Jill Love. Diane Gary and Dennis Nicklow provided a musical selection after Mr. Nixdorf, Mr. Dull, and Dr. Mathias presented the class with their diplomas.

Receive Diplomas

1. The guest speaker for Commencement is Mr. John F. Snyder.
2. Mr. Nixdorf gets Sherry Mognet off on the right foot.
3. Presenting the "Class of 1980!"
4. Class Valedictorian Jaynn Tobias speaks on past memories.
5. Reaching his final achievement of high school, Dan Baker accepts his diploma from Jack Dull, school board president.
6. Joan Shumaker, Class Salutatorian, comments on the future.
7. Connie Shultz, Jay Miller, and Mildred Shaulis step up to receive their diplomas.

Goal Topped in Magazine Sale

During the first week of school, the seniors held the annual Magazine Sale. They topped their goal of $10,000.00 with a total of $10,700.00. The seniors used the profits from the sales to pay for their senior trip and for various Commencement expenses.

The high salesman was Nick Wohlfarth, who sold 50 subscriptions, totaling $502.20. The second highest salesman was Cheri Hauger, who sold a total of 51 subscriptions, totaling $436.17.

1. Nick Wohlfarth, high salesman, is bombarded with magazine order blanks.

2. Mr. George Hanna, of Q.S.P. sales programs, explains the prize award system.

3. One of the most popular prizes in the magazine sale was the "Class of '80" mug.

4. Rusty Henry and Diane Gary check in the prizes to be awarded.

Seniors Travel to Williamsburg

On May 11 and 12, the class of 1980 took their senior trip. The first day was spent in Busch Gardens. Here they had an opportunity to go on amusement park rides, see shows, and savor the atmosphere of the Old Country. On Monday the seniors visited Colonial Williamsburg and experienced America's colonial past.

The group had many memorable experiences. Who will ever forget Diane Gary's flying suitcase? And how could anyone not remember the thrill of riding on the Loch Ness Monster? Truly the senior trip will never be forgotten by the class of 1980.

1. Carol Cane and Melanie Ansell pause before riding down the Flume.

2. "All right, we know we look tired. So would you if you walked around Busch Gardens for four hours!" think Dennis Nicklow and John Fox.

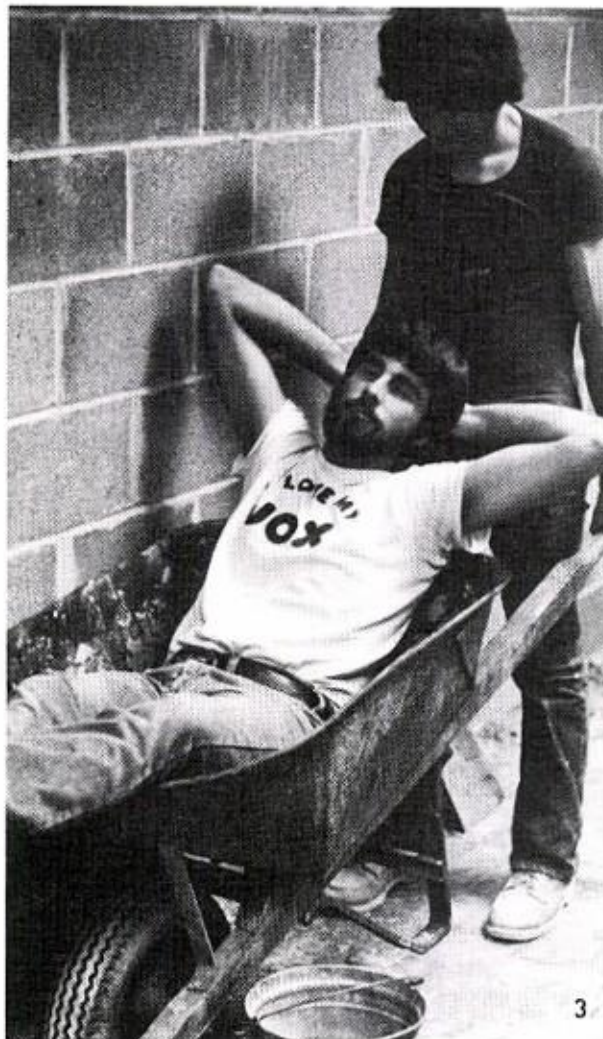

3. The Loch Ness Monster is one of Busch Garden's most famous attractions.

Senior Year Comes to a Close

The class of 1980 was a class of individuals.

However, on several occasions the class pulled together as a group to achieve a goal. Together the class decided to not only reach their magazine sale goal, but also to pass it. The class members gave blood; they assembled the rocket.

Just as each hailstone is separate and individual, so was each senior. And just as the hailstones together create a lovely picture, so did the members of the class of 1980 — together.

1. Jaynn Tobias gives blood while the Bloodmobile visits Rockwood.

2. A hailstorm provides a lovely picture and signals the beginning of winter.

3. "Home, Greg," says Cliff Douglas to Greg Younkin after a day of laying block in the high school.

4. Chris Scelles helps in preparing the Christmas greeting that was sent to the hostages in Iran.

5. Scott Bowman and Nick Wohlfarth paint the rocket which will be placed in front of the school.

6. "Look, Mom, it doesn't hurt!" exclaims Chip Romesberg as he gives blood.

Administration

APPROVED BY

When students wish to venture into a new project or activity, they must have the approval of the administration and the school board. The administrators' responsibilities include not only approving projects, but also disciplining, guiding, and setting examples. One of their greatest responsibilities is making certain the school is run correctly and efficiently.

Unlike the hall pass, which is thrown away after its purpose has been fulfilled, everything we learn during our high school years at Rockwood Area will be put to use during the rest of our lives. We gather knowledge and memories each year of friends, teachers, and administration that will never be forgotten.

The hall pass has only one date, time, and destination, but in our lives we have many different times and dates that all lead to our future destinations.

Charla
To a very nice girl in the great class of '85"
Remember when I stayed with Cindy Pitts and you came up we played records and had a great time. Well good luck in your next 4 years of this miserable school ~~years~~
Your friend

Charla, when you grow up and have twins
don't come crying to me
for safety pins HA, HA, HA
(Just kidding)
